THE SAMPLE TAXATION ACT, 2025

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. (1) This Act may be called the Sample Taxation Act, 2025, and it is a synthetic document made up for the TaxLens test-suite. Short title, extent and commencement.
(2) It extends to the whole of the imaginary territory to which it applies.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the following table applies for computing the distance referred to in section 80C and section 194J:- Definitions.

1. More than 10000 and upto 100000. Two kilometres.

2. More than 100000 and upto 1000000. Six kilometres.

Deduction in respect of life insurance premia, etc.

80C.
An individual or a Hindu undivided family shall be allowed a deduction of the whole of the amount paid in the previous year as life insurance premia, being the aggregate of the sums specified in sub-section (2), not exceeding Rs. 1,50,000.

Fees for professional or technical services.

194J. (1) Any person paying fees for professional services or fees for technical services shall deduct tax at source at the rate of ten per cent of such sum, as provided under the Sample Taxation Act, 2025 and the Income-tax Act, 1961.

43 of 1961.

SYNTHETIC TEST FIXTURE - not an official document.